

EMAIL BULLETIN

HONG KONG IMMIGRATION DEPARTMENT PERMITS DEPENDENTS OF PROFESSIONALS AND INVESTORS IN APPROPRIATE IMMIGRATION CLASSIFICATIONS TO SEEK EMPLOYMENT WITHOUT APPLYING FOR A WORK PERMIT

20 June 06

The Hong Kong Immigration Department recently announced that dependents of persons admitted as investors or professionals will be eligible to seek employment without first applying for a work permit. The change in policy and procedure is aimed at making Hong Kong a more attractive destination for investors, professionals and their families.

For more information on “outbound” immigration to Hong Kong and other locations, contact your Tindall & Foster immigration attorney. Your Tindall & Foster immigration attorney will be happy to work with Tindall & Foster attorneys in our Outbound Practice Group to provide consultations and the full array of “outbound” immigration legal services.