

This Immigration Update[®] from FosterQuan, LLP contains important information regarding the following:

FosterQuan, LLP is pleased to announce that Helene N. Dang, Delisa J. Futch and Avalyn Castillo Langemeier have been named to the partnership.

Helene N. Dang has nine years of practice experience at FosterQuan while representing large corporations, small businesses and individuals in a variety of immigration matters. She has extensive experience handling naturalization and citizenship issues including non-immigrant visa processing, employment-based and family-based residency, I-9 compliance and consular processing. Dang is board certified in immigration and nationality law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization and practices in the firm's Houston office. View attorney biography.

Delisa J. Futch, an associate at FosterQuan for nine years, practices family-based and employment-based immigration law in the firm's Austin office. Her representation includes a particular focus on PERM labor certification, the first step in obtaining a green card. With over 13 years of practice experience, she has provided immigration-related legal services for employers of all sizes, from start-up companies obtaining legal status for key officers to large corporations engaged in mergers and acquisitions. View attorney biography.

Avalyn Castillo Langemeier has nine years of practice at FosterQuan with a focus on employment and compliance-based immigration matters. She represents private companies and public entities as well as individuals such as medical professionals, academics and executives. Langemeier's experience includes responding to ICE subpoenas, settlement negotiations and proactive Form I-9 audits. She is board certified in immigration and nationality law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization and is based in the firm's Houston office. View attorney biography.

ABOUT THE FIRM

FosterQuan, LLP offers a full spectrum of U.S. and global immigration legal services to assist corporations with the strategic and compliance issues involved in the employment and movement of key personnel across international boundaries. With 54 attorneys operating from Houston, Austin, San Antonio, the Rio Grande Valley, Mexico City and Washington, D.C., FosterQuan has more attorneys board certified in immigration and nationality law than any other Texas law firm. For more information, visit fosterquan.com.