8 CFR Part 245

[CIS No. 2420-07; Docket No. USCIS-2007-0047]
RIN 1615-AB62

Removal of Receipt Requirement for Certain H and L Adjustment Applicants Returning From a Trip Outside the United States

AGENCY: U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, DHS.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This rule removes the requirement that certain H and L nonimmigrants returning to the United States following a trip abroad must present a receipt notice for their adjustment of status applications to avoid having such applications deemed abandoned. The purpose of this narrow change is to remove an unnecessary documentation requirement from the regulations that the Department of Homeland Security has determined causes an undue burden on H and L nonimmigrants.

DATES: Effective Date: This rule is effective November 1, 2007.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Carol Vernon, Regulations and Product Management Division, Domestic Operations, U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, Department of Homeland Security, 20 Massachusetts Avenue, Room 2034, Washington, DC 20529, telephone (202) 272-8350.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

Travel outside the United States for an alien who has filed Form I-485, ``Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status,'' to obtain lawful permanent resident status under section 245 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), 8 U.S.C. 1255, may adversely affect that application unless the alien takes certain steps before the trip. Most applicants must obtain permission from U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) to travel prior to the trip, a process referred to as ``advance parole.'' See 8 CFR 212.5 (c) and (f). For these applicants, departing the United States without advance parole while their adjustment of status applications are pending results in automatic abandonment of the applications and constitutes grounds for denial. 8 CFR 245.2(a)(4)(ii)(A) & (B).

However, some applicants do not need to obtain advance parole prior to departing from the United States. 8 CFR 245.2(a)(4)(ii)(C) & (D). These are applicants who are permitted by statute to maintain a nonimmigrant status while they seek to obtain permanent resident status. See INA section 214(h), 8 U.S.C. 1184(h). This rulemaking applies to such applicants with respect to two qualifying nonimmigrant classifications: H-1 and L-1 (including dependents, H-4 and L-2). See INA section 101(a)(15)(H) and (L), 8 U.S.C. 1101(a)(15)(H) and (L) (describing H and L nonimmigrant classifications); 8 CFR 214.2(h) and (l). Both nonimmigrant classifications are employment-based. H-1 nonimmigrants include the H-1B classification for ``specialty occupation'' workers and the H-1C classification for certain registered nurses. See 8 CFR 214.2(h)(1)(ii)(A) and (B). L-1 nonimmigrants include the L-1A classification for certain intracompany transferees who are managers or executives, and the L-1B classification for ``specialized knowledge'' workers. See 8 CFR 214.2(l)(ii)(A).

Under current regulations, adjustment of status applicants maintaining H or L nonimmigrant status who depart the United States will not be deemed to have abandoned their applications if they did not obtain advance parole prior to departure. However, upon return to the United States, they must demonstrate to the immigration officer at the port of entry that they:

- Remain eligible for H-1/H-4 or L-1/L-2 nonimmigrant status;

- Will resume employment with the same employer for which they had previously been authorized to work as an H-1 or L-1 nonimmigrant (not applicable to H-4 or L-2 nonimmigrants);

- Are in possession of a valid H-1/H-4 or L-1/L-2 nonimmigrant visa (if a visa is required); and

Are in possession of the original receipt notice for the application for adjustment of status, Form I-797, ``Notice of Action'' (issued by USCIS).

See 8 CFR 245.2(a)(4)(ii)(C). Preserving the pendency of an adjustment of status application in this manner does not apply to H-1/H-4 or L-1/L-2 nonimmigrants who are under exclusion, deportation, or removal proceedings. In such cases, the Executive Office for Immigration Review of the Department of Justice has jurisdiction over the adjustment of status application and 8 CFR 245.2(a)(4)(ii)(A) governs the effect of travel abroad on those applications.

Because of its varying workload, USCIS recognizes that it is not always able to ensure immediate issuance and mailing of Form I-797 receipt notices upon receipt of an adjustment of status application. At times, USCIS therefore may experience delays in processing and issuing the receipt. This situation places H-1B/H-4 or L-1/L-2 nonimmigrants who are awaiting a Form I-797 receipt notice, but wish to travel outside the United States while their adjustment of status application is pending, in the difficult position of having to decide whether to cancel a planned trip or risk denial of the adjustment application as a result of the departure. Either option would result in hardship to the alien and his or her dependents that the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) finds is unduly burdensome and unnecessary. This is because it renders otherwise qualifying adjustment applications abandoned notwithstanding the fact that the information provided by presentation of the receipt (evidence of filing of an adjustment application) is already available to DHS. An alien whose adjustment of status application is deemed abandoned for failing to present a Form I-797 receipt notice upon readmission to the United States resulting in a denial of the application would be forced to incur the time and expense involved in filing a new adjustment application.

Section 214(h) of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1184(h), establishing the H-1/H-4 and

L-1/L-2 nonimmigrant's ability to maintain nonimmigrant status while pursuing permanent resident status, is broad and places no documentary restrictions on such ability. Further, DHS has determined, in light of advances in database technology, that the removal of the Form I-797 receipt requirement will not have any adverse impact on its responsibilities to ensure control over aliens seeking admission to the United States. Such aliens must establish eligibility for admission, in any case, before DHS permits them to reenter the United States. In addition, DHS creates a record of its inspection of the alien, including the alien's application for admission.

II. Regulatory Changes

This rule amends 8 CFR 245.2(a)(4)(ii)(C) to remove the requirement that an H-1/H-4 or L-1/L-2 nonimmigrant present an original of the Form I-797 receipt notice for a pending adjustment of status application upon readmission to the United States following a trip abroad in order to avoid abandonment of the adjustment of status application as a result of the departure. This rule makes no other changes to 8 CFR 245.2(a)(4)(ii)(C).

III. Rulemaking Requirements

DHS finds that this rule relates to internal agency management, procedure, and practice and therefore is exempt from the public comment requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act (APA) under 5 U.S.C. 553(b)(A). This rule does not alter substantive criteria by which USCIS will approve or deny applications or determine eligibility for any immigration benefit. Instead, this rule relieves a document presentation requirement for certain applicants for immigration benefits. Specifically, this rule removes the requirement that H-1/H-4 and L-1/L-2 nonimmigrants present a Form I-797 receipt notice for their adjustment of status applications upon readmission to the United States after a trip abroad in order to avoid having their applications abandoned. This document presentation requirement is unnecessary since it concerns information that is already available to DHS. This final rule merely eliminates an unnecessary burden on these arriving aliens and streamlines agency management of its processes. As a result, DHS is not required to provide the public with an opportunity to submit comments on the subject matter of this rule.

Moreover, DHS finds that good cause exists under 5 U.S.C. 553(b)(B) to make the rule effective upon publication in the Federal Register without prior notice and public comment on the grounds that delaying implementation of this rule to allow for public comment would be impracticable and contrary to the public interest. As a result of USCIS's July 17, 2007, announcement that it would accept employment-based Forms I-485 filed by aliens whose priority dates are current under Department of State Visa Bulletin No. 107, USCIS received an unprecedented volume of employment-based applications for adjustment of status, including those filed by H and L nonimmigrants. Because of the recent surge in such filings, it will take several weeks for USCIS to enter the necessary data and issue Form I-797 receipt notices for employment-based adjustment of status applications. Therefore, it is important for this rule to take effect as soon as possible to avoid undue hardship on applicants who may need travel outside the United States prior to receiving the receipt notice.

In addition, no substantive rights or obligations of the affected public are changed by this rule. DHS believes the public will welcome this change. The public needs no time to conform its conduct so as to avoid violation of these regulations because the rule relieves a requirement of the existing regulations. Further, this rule will have no adverse impact on DHS' adjudicatory responsibilities or ability to track the foreign travel of affected persons since DHS already records the admission of all nonimmigrants. For these reasons, this rule is effective immediately under 5 U.S.C. 553(d)(1) and (3).

This rule relates to internal agency management, and, therefore, is exempt from the provisions of Executive Order Nos. 12630, 12988, 13045, 13132, 13175, 13211, and 13272. This rule is not considered by DHS to be a "significant regulatory action" under Executive Order 12866, section 3(f), Regulatory Planning and Review. Therefore, it has not been reviewed by the Office of Management and Budget. Further, this action is not a proposed rule requiring an initial or final regulatory flexibility analysis under the Regulatory Flexibility Act, 5 U.S.C. 601 et seq. In addition, this rule is not subject to the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (NEPA), 42 U.S.C. 4321 et seq., Title II of the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995, 2 U.S.C. Ch. 17A, 25, or the E-Government Act of 2002, 44 U.S.C. 3501, note.

Finally, under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, Public Law 104-

13, all Departments are required to submit to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB), for review and approval, any reporting requirements inherent in a rule. This rule does not affect any information collections, reporting or recordkeeping requirements under the Paperwork Reduction Act.
