IMMIGRATION CLINIC

IMMIGRATION CLINIC

Geoffrey A. Hoffman, Director

THE IMMIGRATION CLINIC at the UH Law Center has assisted hundreds of immigrants who could not otherwise find legal representation. On a pro bono basis, the Immigration Clinic represents individuals facing deportation before Immigration Courts and in asylum interviews before U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services. It also assists crime victims, including victims of domestic violence, as well as U.S. citizens petitioning for their family members to obtain lawful status from around the world.
