

SEMINAR INVITE

Government Investigations, Employer Sanctions and I-9 Compliance

Government Representatives and Other Experts Discuss
Immigration Challenges Facing All Employers

Is your organization in full compliance with federal immigration laws, or do you risk being assessed costly fines — or worse — for potential violations?

Keeping up with the most current information concerning immigration regulations, including the most recent employment verification rules and Form I-9 changes can be difficult. However, violating federal law and risking huge repercussions for yourself and your organization is not an option.

In this informative program, you'll get the information you need for your organization to properly handle Form I-9 compliance, respond to specific government investigations, and defend against potential criminal charge.
